U/CL Comings and Goings

Suzette Spencer attended the Florida Health Sciences Library Association conference in Orlando... Dan Tan attended the annual "Computers in Libraries" conference in Washington, DC... Rich Ackerman attended the Charleston Conference in Charleston, South Carolina... Michelle Apps and Alice Murillo attended Florida Library Association conference and the Florida Association of College and Research Libraries board meeting... Judi Tidwell and Rebecca Dames attended the American Library Association Annual Conference in Las Vegas... Dan Tan, Suzette Spencer and Alice Murillo attended SEFLIN’s Regional Conference.

Andrew Dutka, Jan Rothhaar, Silvia Perez Barraza, and Rich Ackerman presented on U/CL’s digitization activities at an FLVC Talking Tech, “Getting Ready for Islandora” II. Suzette Spencer collaborated with Student Life, Honors Institute, and African Student Union presenting “Hair Culture: the business of beauty in a post-racial society” and “Love and Laughter: Identity, acceptance, and the female world of comedy”... Simone Williams and Dan Tan taught a packed workshop on “Embedding Videos into D2L’... Dan Tan presented on “YTD YourTube Downloader” at SEFLIN’s Regional Conference “Riding a Technology Wave”... Sunem Garcia and Suzette Spencer presented “Free and Easy Technologies to Re-Energize Your Teaching” at their Professional Development Day workshop.

MOOCs proved popular! Jan Rothhaar and Silvia Perez Barraza studied “Metadata: Organizing and Discovering Information” at UNC Chapel Hill, and Rich Ackerman studied “Copyright for Librarians” through a Duke MOOC.

Staff also participated in graduate level training. Miguel Suarez and LeAnn Haste were in MLS programs at Florida State University and Ohio State University, respectively. Nancy Calderon was enrolled in the MPA program at Nova Southeastern. Natalie Dinkins completed the 16-hour Management Development & Supervisory Training program at Broward College.

New & Improved

Technology
- New electronic signage is in the Library lobby and Room 164.
- The Automation Department completed a server virtualization project to improve reliability and uptime of essential services.
- Four iMacs were deployed for student use in Room 164.
- Our new mobile website was released in November. Usage has more than doubled.

New Resources
- ACM Digital Library
- Psychiatry Online
- Women & Social Movements in the United States
- Ambrose Video
- Black Short Fiction and Folklore

Facilities
- Library front doors will be replaced during Winter break.
- Room 160 was converted into a STEM Center offering tutoring, career oriented presentations, and faculty content workshops.
- Campus security is scheduled 40 hours per week (including weekends) to provide dedicated support to the building.
- A project monitor has been assigned to the Library to facilitate our multiple facilities projects.
- Room 164 is now a Silent Study Zone.
- Technology help for students increased from 54 to 80 hours per week.
- Six large tables and five tables of café seating were added to accommodate students using their own devices.

Over fifty “Study Zone” signs were placed in the building to inform students about expected behaviors.

Florida Atlantic University's Office of Undergraduate Research and Inquiry invited all undergraduates who have participated in research, creative or scholarly activities to showcase their project in all the FAU libraries on the Boca Raton, Jupiter, and Davie Campuses. The 2014 projects included models, robots, small posters with models, visual design manuals, educational games, architecture designs, and many more. The library expo happens the Spring semester of each year. The Spring 2015 display in the U/C Library will be from February 23rd through April 10th, 2015.

New collections donated this year include:

- Over 100 items from BC’s Phi Theta Kappa Mu Mu chapter, including cow-themed memorabilia: a cow clock, wooden cow cutouts, and various cow themed décor
- 1980-2000 videos, CDs, and photos from our Public Relations Department
- Vintage medical instruments donated by former Nursing AD Bonnie Dones
- “New Building 6” groundbreaking shovels from the Art Department

Archives also worked this year with South Campus Aviation on an exciting project organizing the archives of Eastern Airlines. Many aviation students are participating, giving them a unique hands-on view of the history of their field.

Our student worker from Lithuania continues to organize collections, the latest being the oversized collection which includes historic aerial photos of Central campus.

Our student volunteer from Nagasaki, Japan continues researching our Japanese monographs. Her latest discovery, a volume of an 18th century Japanese encyclopedia, was based on an earlier Chinese edition. Unlike modern encyclopedia, this one organizes topics a bit differently. For example, it lists all things found in the sky—birds, bees, clouds—in the same volume.

The Academic Success Center (ASC), formerly known as the Learning Resources Center (LRC), has made many changes in the last year to better serve students, faculty, and staff from various disciplines. College wide we have changed our name so that students view our department as a positive place where they can receive academic assistance. A Science, Technology, Engineering, and Math (STEM) center opened in February, and since then the center has had 5,635 visits. Open hours have also been increased in other instructional labs to support student demand. We have changed the way services are advertised to ensure all students are aware of how services could assist them in meeting their success goals. The ASC hosts math review sessions offered by faculty as well as those presented by the math lab. We look forward to serving all students.
Message from the Dean

This past year has been a busy and rewarding year. We have been able to identify key projects and student success initiatives to support the college’s strategic goals. We will be focusing on out of class support activities that engage students and promote the existing learning-centered environments of the Library and the Academic Success Center.

We have secured funding for facilities renovations that have been organized under Phase I and Phase II. Phase I will commence during the holiday break. Phase I includes new doors for the library main entrance, remodeling of the circulation service point, enclosure of the circulation department work area with a glass wall, the construction of five new study rooms, and the addition of windows to the four curriculum labs. Phase II will include the conceptual redesign of the FAU lab, BC classroom and reference service point.

We continue to work closely with FLVC to ensure that electronic database purchases reflect institutional needs and that the college is ready to fund supplemental resources. In addition, we have reclassified one of our professional technical staff to digital services specialist and added a part-time position to further support this function.

The Library team continues to work tirelessly to support student success and our learning centered environment. During the first half of this semester, 2076 students attended 99 information literacy workshops, 1564 three-hour textbook loans were processed and 16,590 instructional tutoring hours were provided.

Finally, our faculty, staff, and administrators have also assumed significant roles on the many college committees at Broward College so that we can continue to make a difference and have an impact. We have also participated on SEFLIN committees and we are new voting members to the Florida Library Association and the South Florida Health Sciences Library Consortium.

This year we will continue to pursue internal and external resources, partnerships and ideas to continue to strengthen the mission of both BC and FAU.

Our mission: The University/College Library will collect, preserve, and provide access to information resources which support the instructional, research, public service programs and missions of the College and University served.

Circulation News

- Textbooks for over 500 courses offered at Central Campus are now available at reserves for three-hour loans.
- Our scholarly periodicals are being interfiled with the circulating collection. This will make it easier for students to find and use them. Leisure magazines will remain on display near the coffee shop.
- U/CL was one of nine colleges in Florida to switch to Mango, a new catalog interface, after being one of two beta test sites in the state. Mango is more user friendly and provides better centralized article searching. Since it is also used at FAU and other state universities, it helps our students make an easier transition to research at those schools.
Women’s History Month

In celebration of Women’s History Month, the University/College Library, along with Student Life, African Student Union, and the Honors Institute had the pleasure of hosting a lecture event. Our invited keynote speaker was actress and comedian, Ms. Kim Coles, author of The Gratitude Journal. The event entitled, Love and Laughter: Identity, Acceptance, and the Female World of Comedy, provided messages of self-worth, finding your true identity, self-acceptance, and detailed the speaker’s journey through the world of television. Ms. Coles lit up the packed room with her grace and comedic candor on her struggles and successes as a female American performer and the importance of taking advantage of the smallest of opportunities, as they can lead to unforeseen stepping stones. With over 90 attendees, the event was well attended by students, faculty, and staff college-wide.

BC Museum Collection

The BC Museum Collection has over 26,000 pieces and consists of cultural artifacts and natural history specimens. These collections are exhibited for professors to use and plan lessons to enhance the education of students at BC. Exhibits can be seen at various Broward College campuses and centers, in addition to the Museum of Discovery and Science (MODS), in downtown Fort Lauderdale. Various exhibits are changed out each semester so that the collection pieces rotate to all students.

Behind the scenes, we continue to accession the current collection, which includes photographing, numbering, weighing and measuring and identifying each piece per donor collection.

Staff News

Congrats to our 40 Year Service Award Winner

Neil Linger was recognized at Professional Development Day for 40 years of service to Broward College!

In addition to many campus responsibilities, he also serves as the Broward College representative to Florida Education Association and National Education Association. Provost Howdyshell presented him with his award.
