Libraries assist students with learning and access to information. As the needs of the classroom have changed, we have enhanced our library services to meet student learning outcomes.

I am honored to serve as the Dean of Libraries and Academic Success Centers, having previously worked as Associate Dean of the Central Campus Academic Success Center. The libraries and Academic Success Centers have a vital role in supporting students during their college career.

Here are a few ways we are serving the college community:

- To better serve students, we have renovated spaces on the first and second floor of the University/College Library to provide convenient spaces for studying and collaborating.
- We continue to review ways to improve our technology and how students access information.
- Faculty Librarians are embedded in Broward College’s eight guided pathways to provide library instruction.
- Senior Curriculum Support Specialists are also engrained in the eight guided pathways to provide academic support services.
- Our library staff serves our college community with traditional library services such as information literacy, research appointments, and technical services.
- The Academic Success Centers continue to provide tutoring and other curriculum support services.

Every semester our department helps equip students with tools and techniques to succeed. I am grateful to have a team that is talented and ready to assist students with achieving academic success.

Dr. Monique Blake
Dean, Libraries and Academic Success Centers
The University/College Library (UCL) hosted the Genocides of the 20th Century exhibit in our facility during the 2018 spring term (January through April). The exhibit was created by Memorial de la Shoah of Paris, France, and our colleagues at Florida Atlantic University (FAU) coordinated its housing at Central Campus. The exhibit includes a comparative study of the Armenian, Jewish and Tutsi genocides and it attracted tours from local high schools as well as visits from our own college students, faculty and staff.

Broward College (BC) and FAU are developing co-branding projects for the Central/Davie Campus to ensure our students know the UCL is here to serve students from both institutions. In January 2018, the UCL was co-branded with BC and FAU logos on the entrance doors and we have new BC/FAU floormats greeting guests as they enter the building.

At FAU’s Annual Broward Achievement Awards on March 30, 2018, former Dean, Libraries and Academic Success Centers, Dr. Sunem Beaton-Garcia, representing BC, was recognized with an Unsung Hero award for BC’s partnership and commitment to the university community.

The UCL held focus groups in spring 2017 with various students, faculty and staff of BC and FAU to discuss ways to improve the library space. Based on feedback, areas of the first and second floors were remodeled to better accommodate student needs. UCL renovations took place during summer 2018 (May through August) and the following changes were made:

- Reference was moved from the west side of the lobby to Room 164 on the east side of the lobby. It includes a new Reference Desk where patrons can receive help from a librarian; a one-on-one research appointment room; our Leisure and Ready Reference collections; and a quiet study zone.
- The former Reference Desk now houses our Tech Assistants group who assist students with printing or other technical needs they may have.
- FAU’s Computer Lab was moved into Room 104, providing additional space and computers specifically for FAU students.
- Room 162 is a new Library Instruction Room where our librarians conduct classes with students. The room is equipped with 25 computers.
- The Tutoring Lab moved from Room 146 into larger, newly redesigned space inside the Academic Success Center in Room 234. The lab offers student support in modern foreign languages, economics, business, and biological sciences, as well as services specifically tailored to meet student accessibility needs. Software for Computer Science and other programs is also available.
• Room 146 was split into two rooms - Room 146 houses a collaborative classroom and Room 146A houses our Audio Visual staff.
• We have six new rooms in the open area to the rear of the first floor:
  - A multimedia lab providing computers with design software for FAU or BC students studying graphic design or working on design projects.
  - A collaborative study room which is equipped with a computer and large monitor to work on projects with a group.
  - Four rooms for individual booking which can be used to practice speeches or record audio.

RENOVATIONS CELEBRATIONS:

South Campus President Dr. Rolando Garcia, who oversees BC Libraries, and Dean Monique Blake hosted a UCL Ribbon Cutting Ceremony on September 20, 2018 to celebrate our newly renovated spaces. Executive leadership from BC and FAU were in attendance as well as key people responsible in managing the project to completion. At the conclusion of the ceremony, Honors College students led guests on tours of the newly renovated spaces.

Dean Monique Blake and the BC Libraries Administration Team hosted a Faculty and Staff Appreciation Lunch to thank employees from the UCL, Central Academic Success Center, Facilities/Maintenance and the BC and FAU Technology groups for their many hours of work toward our renovations.
New Employees

Jade Kastel joined the UCL in November 2017 as Library Services Supervisor. Jade came to us from Youngstown State University in Ohio, where she digitized records and other music formats in the jazz and music libraries. Additionally, she worked as an adjunct music instructor and director of music in Milwaukee, WI. She also worked with various technologies and software in the computer lab.

Zulay Montesino joined the UCL in January 2018 as Senior Library Assistant. Zulay came to us from the International Department at BC where she worked admitting international students for three and a half years. Prior to BC, she worked at the University of Central Florida in Orlando.

Torri Kellough was named Faculty Librarian for the UCL in August 2018. Torri has worked at the UCL as Reference and Instruction Librarian since March 2018 and came to us with 13 years professional library experience. She worked in various roles from Systems Librarian at the National Library of Medicine to Library Director at City College of Fort Lauderdale. Additionally, Torri served at SEFLIN as the Director for Member Services for Technology.

Angela Griffin joined the UCL as Director of Technical Services in September 2018. Angela came to us from the St. Thomas University Law Library and has worked in the areas of technical services, technology services, records management, and research during her career.

Position Changes

In October 2017, Maria Nolazco Andrade was named Library Specialist working in the UCL’s Technical Services Department. Maria previously served as Senior Library Assistant in the UCL’s Circulation Department and has been with Broward College for six years.

Silvia Ana Perez Barraza became Cataloging and Metadata Coordinator for the UCL in June 2018. Silvia Ana served as Electronic Resources Coordinator for Technical Services for four years before moving to her new position. She has worked at Broward College for 12 years.

Retirements

Associate Dean of Technical Services Rich Ackerman retired in June 2018 after more than seven years with the UCL. Rich was an invaluable member of our administrative team, overseeing the acquisition of databases, negotiating library contracts, helping set cataloging standards and serving on numerous project teams for a variety of library organizations and consortiums on behalf of BC. He served as a human “book” during multiple annual Literary Festivals held at the UCL and shared his expertise and passion for growing orchids with students, faculty and staff.

Technical Services Librarian Jan Rothhaar retired in August 2018 after 31+ years at the UCL. Jan was responsible for the cataloging standards used to describe our holdings and managed the workflow around the acquisition and implementation of library materials and resources. She and her Technical Services team ensure students and faculty can find what they are looking for when they use the college library catalog, a job that often goes unnoticed, but is vital to student and faculty success.
PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT, CONTINUING EDUCATION, FACULTY GRANTS AND AWARDS

In July 2017, Faculty Librarian Simone Williams conducted training for librarians at Broward College’s International Center at Sampoerna University in Jakarta, Indonesia, via Blackboard Collaborate.

Faculty Librarians Victor Lawrence and Cristy Moran published a peer-reviewed article with Christopher Jordan, a North Regional/Broward County librarian colleague, for The Reference Librarian. The article is based on their October 2017 presentation at the Florida Association of College & Research Libraries’ annual conference about how they have partnered to provide programming for both college students and public patrons through the unique joint-use partnership at the North Campus. The article, “Experience from the Field: Programming in a Joint-Use Partnership Library,” was published in May 2018 and is available in print or online through BC Library’s electronic resources.

Simone Williams presented to BC faculty librarians on accessibility and ADA compliance for library sites (LibGuides) in November 2017.

Former Dean, Libraries and Academic Success Centers, Dr. Sunem Beaton-Garcia was co-leader of a team responsible for awarding $100,000 in grants to faculty supporting innovative pedagogy. The funding was granted because of BC’s ranking as a Finalist with Distinction for the 2017 Aspen Prize for Community College Excellence, the nation’s preeminent recognition of high achievement and performance in America’s community colleges. Faculty were invited to submit proposals with their creative ideas for teaching students. Faculty Librarian Lori Albrizio participated on the judges panel and grant recipients were announced in November 2017. Faculty Librarians Chris Casper, Andrew Dutka, Kristin Kroger, Elena Lazovskaia-Hall and Simone Williams were among the Aspen grant winners and presented posters highlighting their projects at BC’s 2018 LEAD Conference - Professional Development Day held in February 2018.

Our Aspen grant winners were participants of the following teams:

- Contextualizing with GIS:
  - Julie Mura, Professor, Geography
  - Chris Casper, Faculty Librarian
  This project integrates Geographic Information System (GIS) software and information literacy to provide innovative ways for faculty and students to learn about their local, national, and global community. This pilot project introduces GIS mapping technology in teaching and learning for GEA2000 and EVR1001 courses.

- Empirical Rules the World: Promoting Graphic Novels and Information Literacy in the STEM Classroom:
  - Mitzi Fulwood, Assistant Professor, Mathematics
  - Elena Lazovskaia-Hall, Faculty Librarian
  - Simone Williams, Faculty Librarian
  Graphic novels have become increasingly acceptable in libraries and classrooms. Unfortunately, very little has been done to promote this instructional tool in the higher education or STEM classroom. This project determined if graphic novels and information literacy improved student success in the college statistics classroom. The grant project culminated with select Pathway to Statistics students presenting their research posters at the Student Research Showcase at Central Campus in April 2018.

- Student Research Initiative Project (SRIP):
  - Kristin Kroger, Faculty Librarian
  - Elena Lazovskaia-Hall, Faculty Librarian
  - Nathalie Franco, Assistant Professor, Behavioral Science
  - Andrew Dutka, Faculty Librarian
  (Rich Ackerman, Associate Dean of Technical Services, provided advisement)
  This project helped students conduct academic level research and present their findings via poster presentations. SRIP proposed to help students succeed through a program of targeted research workshops, equipment and supplies to print posters and inclusion of work in the Seahawk Scholar Repository. The grant proposed a pilot program with the Honors College colloquium and plans to scale the project to collaborate with CTEL and the Scholarship of Teaching and Learning (SoTL) program.

The grant-winning SRIP team, led by Faculty Librarian Andrew Dutka, seized the opportunity to collaborate and assist faculty winners with creating posters to display their project research and information. Each grant-winning team was assigned a personal librarian who offered one-on-one assistance with all aspects of their poster creation.

Associate Dean, Public Services Suzette Spencer and Faculty Librarian Simone Williams presented Open Educational Resources (OERs) information to BC faculty in December 2017.
In fall 2017, Senior Library Assistant Brian Mena Sanchez was presented an Unsung Hero Award. Brian has been an employee of BC since 2008. He trains, supervises, and creates the schedule for part time employees and ensures they are on task with their responsibilities. Brian is a problem solver and finds ways to improve the services of the Circulation service point. He handles every situation professionally and exemplifies a true customer service oriented employee.

Elena Lazovskaia-Hall was a Lead Instructor for the SLS1501 class held in fall 2017. She provided feedback to students’ questions with face-to-face and e-mail interactions and helped them successfully complete the SLS class.

Faculty Librarian Simone Williams created a new BC Online Library Orientation module - http://libguides.broward.edu/libraryorientation - in February 2018.

The Association of American Colleges & Universities (AAC&U) 2018 General Education and Assessment Conference was held February 15-17, 2018, in Philadelphia, PA. Faculty Librarian Lori Albrizio presented “Transformational Tuning: Building Competencies and Context into Assignments.” The presentation explored the tuning process which brings real-world understanding to the purpose of general education, and can help students connect more with the curriculum in meaningful ways. Lori’s co-presenter Associate Professor, Business Administration and Economics, Greg Lindeblom, could not attend the conference, so Lori was assisted by District Director of Outcomes and Assessment Michelle Jackson and Faculty Librarian Chris Casper.

April 2018:
- Archives and Special Collections Librarian Andrew Dutka was recognized by District Director Quakish Liner, Bob C. Elmore Honors College, with an Unsung Hero award. He was recognized for his work with students in preparation for the 2017 Honors Colloquium.
- Faculty Librarians Victor Lawrence and Cristy Moran presented a breakout session, “FAKE NEWS: Using Media Trends to Teach Practical Information Literacy,” at the Teaching Academic Success & Survival (TASS) Conference in Fort Lauderdale to a national audience of higher education faculty and support staff.
- The BC Libraries and ASCs Administrators hosted a visit with the FIU Library Administrators and shared best practices across both groups.
- Faculty Librarian Simone Williams presented “OER in the Sunshine State: Spotlight on Florida” on a panel at the Achieving the Dream: OER Degree Initiative Summit plenary session.
- Faculty Librarians Dan Tan and Simone Williams presented at the First Annual Textbook Affordability Summit on Creative Commons licenses.

Faculty Librarian Cristy Moran presented a lightning round on the work of librarians in BC’s College Read Committee at the Florida Library Association Annual Conference in May 2018. Her presentation was titled “A Hero Can Be Anyone: Harnessing Your Superpowers for Social Good.”

Faculty Librarians Elena Lazovskaia-Hall and Judi Tidwell co-created and presented a poster on the UCL’s ongoing program “Educating about Florida’s First Nations” at the 2018 Florida Library Association Annual Conference.

In June 2018, Faculty Librarian Simone Williams presented to faculty at BC’s International Center at Shanghai Second Polytechnic University in Shanghai, China at the SSPU Teaching Excellence and Learning Conference. Topics included plagiarism, OERs, and incorporating library resources and services.

BC Faculty Librarians also presented at the following professional conferences not already highlighted in this section:
- Cristy Moran – Southeast Florida Library Information Network (SEFLIN) Regional Annual Conference – July 2017
- Lori Albrizio and Greg Lindeblom – 2018 LEAD Conference - BC Professional Development Day – February 2018
- Elita Kalma and Cristy Moran – Florida Library Association (FLA) – May 2018
PROFESSIONAL MEMBERSHIPS, COLLEGE COMMITTEES AND INITIATIVES

Volunteerism

Our faculty and staff volunteered in a variety of community outreach events and programs throughout the year. Here are just a couple of examples:

BC Libraries had a team participate in the 5th Annual AARP Foundation and Miami Dolphins Million Meal Pack in April 2018. Our team of administrators, faculty and staff assisted in putting together meals for those in need in the South Florida community.

Faculty Librarian Simone Williams was involved in the TutorMate online tutoring program. She volunteered her time by tutoring a first grader at a Broward County Public School in reading throughout the 2017-2018 academic year.
STUDENT, FACULTY AND STAFF OUTREACH

September 2017:
BC Faculty Librarians and administrators participated in Faculty Open Houses held on our three main campuses on September 1. We interacted with 85 faculty members.

UCL Outreach Committee members joined Club Rush events on Central Campus on September 26 and 27 to provide information about the library’s services and resources to students. They met with 70 students during the two-day event.

October 2017:
BC Faculty Librarians held a Research Clinic and Citation Check Week October 2-6 during which they assisted students with incorporating research and sources in their papers and projects. They showed students how to locate quality sources using our library databases and how to document sources in a References or Works Cited page. Additional Research Clinic and Citation Check weeks were held in November and December.

The UCL Outreach Committee took part in Hispanic Heritage Month activities held at the Student Affairs building in October and interacted with 100 students, sharing information about our library services.

The UCL Outreach Committee also sponsored an International Passport Event in the library called America Pole to Pole and held a prize drawing for students who participated. 40 students and 18 faculty and staff attended.

UCL Information Research Sessions were held on October 24, 26 and November 2. We provided students with strategies as simple as improving research methods to planning and presenting a poster session.

Faculty Librarian Judi Tidwell and Assistant Professor of Philosophy and Religion Joshua Kimber facilitated a Meaning of Truth Discussion Series on October 11 and November 8. They discussed the relationship between truth and the media and engaged members of the BC community to discuss whether the media has a responsibility to uphold a certain standard of truth. We had 61 participants on October 11 and over 100 participants in the November 8 event.

During the 2017-2018 year, the Academic Success Centers (ASC) provided students, faculty, and staff with the educational resources needed for academic achievement. The ASC team partnered with the Florida Atlantic University Link program, Minority Male Initiative, and First Generation Proud to inform students of tutoring and other support services. In addition, the ASC collaborated with the Broward College Pathways to provide mock exams and course specific facilitated review sessions. The ASC, in partnership with the Computer Science and Math departments, offered Broward College students tutoring in math and sciences courses; this tutoring was conducted by FAU juniors and seniors. We look forward to continuing to serve all students.

Extended Hours for Students – During two weekends in October 2017, the UCL and ASC staff extended building hours and services such as tutoring to assist our students in preparation for exams. We also offered extended building hours and services on select dates in December 2017, February 2018 and April 2018.

November 2017:
Faculty Librarian Andrew Dutka presented information about the Seahawk Scholars Repository to the Honors Student Committee. The Seahawk Scholars Repository preserves student presentations as part of the historic record of BC and provides students with a permanent digital home for the best of their work. Students in attendance were preparing presentations for the 2017 Honors Colloquium.
On November 2, Faculty Librarians Andrew Dutka and Elena Lazovskaia-Hall conducted a Student Poster Workshop to assist students in creation of academic posters for the honors colloquium.

Archives and Special Collections Librarian Andrew Dutka and Associate Professor of History and Political Science Dr. Rowena Hernandez-Muzquiz facilitated an Oral History Mini-Conference on November 3 to provide insight into oral history and teach oral history interview techniques. 20 students attended the event.

The UCL Outreach Committee hosted a discussion of Native American history and culture on November 8 to celebrate Native American Heritage Month. Our guest speaker was Ms. Althea Frye of the Miccosukee Tribe of Florida who belongs to the Bird Clan. Ms. Frye is the great-niece of the first chairman, Buffalo Tiger. She was joined by her uncle, Pete Osceola, who is an elder and a member of the Bird Clan, and they led an informative and interactive discussion about the traditions and views of the Miccosukee Tribe. Approximately 119 people attended including students, faculty and staff.

In November 2017 and April 2018, Faculty Librarians Victor Lawrence and Cristy Moran participated in the English for Academic Purposes faculty and student EAP Days at North Campus. During these events, students spoke to librarians one-on-one about library resources for language learning, research support, and library services.

December 2017:
On December 4, UCL Outreach Committee members hosted Haiku and Coffee, an outreach event to engage students in poetry and writing. 22 people participated in the event led by ASC Tutor Marta Goldstein Ghelman.

December 4-8, the UCL hosted De-Stress week, providing stress balls and coloring tables for students to take a break from the stress of exams. We held a similar week of activities at the end of spring term, April 26 – May 2.

January 2018:
The UCL hosted a table at the First Flight student orientation on January 4. The First Flight orientation offers new students a chance to learn more about the departments and services available to them at BC. We interacted with 68 students.

The UCL Outreach Committee hosted a table in front of the library on January 8, 9 and 13 to Welcome Back students for the spring term. We provided information to 220 students about our library services, handed out campus maps, and provided directions to help them navigate their way around Central Campus.

UCL Faculty Librarians hosted How to Create the Innovation Grant Poster sessions January 23 and 26 to instruct and guide faculty on creating posters to display their Aspen grant-winning projects.

February 2018:
Two Faculty Innovation Grant Poster Sessions were held on February 23 as part of the 2018 LEAD Conference – Professional Development Day. Faculty Innovation Grant Awardees displayed posters with details of their grant-winning projects and discussed their classroom innovation strategies with faculty and staff.

BC Faculty Librarians hosted a Walk-In Research Clinic the week of February 26th to provide help to students needing assistance with research or projects. The group also hosted a Walk-In Research Clinic in late April.

March 2018:
Faculty Librarians Victor Lawrence and Cristy Moran, hosted their third annual Human Library at North Campus as a part of the wRites of Spring Literary Festival on March 27. This year, over 200 visitors came to check out the Human Library’s “books.” The themes of the Human Library 2018 were diverse identity and culture as described in Chantel Acevedo’s The Distant Marvels, the featured book for the year. Books participated from within the BC community, including the Muslim Student Association, MSD Strong, Project RENEW, International Student Club, and Best Buddies. Participants also came from local area groups including three books from Florida’s Lighthouse for the Blind, Democratic Women’s Club, and more. The event was featured in the ProQuest blog.

April 2018:
The UCL’s Literary Festival 2018 was held in mid-April to coincide with National Library Week and 783 students from BC and FAU participated in the three-day event.
The festival was comprised of multiple activities, snow cone giveaways, and a contest where students were given a “passport” and had to attend multiple festival events to get their passport stamped and qualify for prizes. We awarded three contest winners with gift baskets containing various items from BC and FAU. Festival highlights included:

- Expression Boards displayed in the lobby of the UCL where students could write their thoughts for others to view.
- The Multilingual Open Mic/Poetry Slam, co-sponsored by BC Student Life and the UCL, which attracted students with readings of original and favorite poetry.
- Expresso Yourself, an event offering students the chance to grab coffee and express themselves through singing, dancing or reading stories or poems. The event was hosted by PsiBeta Club & the Sociology Club, BC Student Life and the UCL.
- College Read hosted a presentation by Fredi Lajvardi, teacher and subject of Spare Parts: Four Undocumented Teenagers, One Ugly Robot, and the Battle for the American Dream, at Central Campus in April 2018. Students from English for Academic Purposes, the Teacher Education Program, Communications, and other programs came to the event from all campuses to listen to Mr. Lajvardi speak on the value of public education, creative thinking in the classroom, and diversity in STEM. The same evening, the College Read Student Recognition Ceremony was held in conjunction with the UCL’s Literary Festival, and winners of the College Read student essay and speech contests performed their winning pieces and received prizes for their achievements.
- A Student Research Showcase, offering BC and FAU students the opportunity to showcase and discuss their research projects with other students, faculty and staff.
- First Gen Stories of Struggle & Growth, sponsored by the SBSHS Pathway and the First-Generation Faculty Visibility Campaign. The event featured first-generation college students discussing their personal journeys.

Associate Dean of Technical Services Rich Ackerman and Faculty Librarian Elena Lazovskaii-Hall participated in Earth Day events, hosted by the Environmental Sustainability Committee. They interacted with students, faculty and staff discussing ways to preserve our planet.

May 2018:
South Campus President Dr. Rolando Garcia, Associate Dean of Public Services Suzette Spencer, and Faculty Librarian Cristy Moran were among the administrators and faculty who supported the Minority Male Initiative throughout the academic year by providing research and volunteering for flagship events including their speaker series.

July 2018:
Upward Bound students visited our Archives Department in July 2018. The Upward Bound program is designed to assist up to 60 students at Deerfield Beach High School, McArthur High School, and South Broward High School who want to pursue studies after high school.

August 2018
Welcome Back Events:
- Our BC Faculty Librarians hosted information tables at the campus Welcome Back events at North, Central and South campuses. They interacted with faculty and staff and provided information about our library services, information literacy classes and more.
- Our UCL Outreach Committee hosted a table in front of the library during the first week of the fall term to provide students with information about our library resources, hand out campus maps, and provide directions to help them navigate their way around Central Campus.
Faculty Librarians Dan Tan and Elena Lazovskaia-Hall continue to implement their outreach program Pop-Up Library for FAU students. During the fall 2017, spring 2018 and summer 2018 terms, they had face-to-face interactions with a total of 1,652 FAU students.

During the 2017-2018 academic year, UCL Outreach Committee members and faculty librarians attended the following FAU events to provide information to students, faculty and staff about the resources and services available at our joint-use facility:

- Transfer Orientations
- WOW (Weeks of Welcome)
- Open Houses
- Welcome Back Bash
