

EARLY-BIRD FOR COLLEGE — Today's first applicant for Broward's new junior college was Norma Brown, right, a graduate of Pompano Beach High School who wants to attend freshman classes next fall. Norma's mother, Mrs. J. Daniel Brown, 1631 NE 46th St., Pompano Beach, and Dr. Joe B. Rushing, college president, were present as she answered questions for the record. Several students stopped by county school headquarters Friday to pick up applications, Dr. Rushing said. The forms became available in high school offices this afternoon. (See related story above.)

(News photo by Paul Whitehouse)