SOUTH PACIFIC — "I'm gonna wash that man right out of my hair," profess Betty Casper, Joyce Casoria and Sylvia Cross, left to right, in one of the sprightly song-and-dance numbers in the "South Pacific" segment of College Capers, being presented by the Junior College of Broward County next Friday night, May 26 at Stranahan High School auditorium. The student variety show is sponsored by the service club alliance at the college.

DOWN IN DOGPATCH — Daisy Mae and Li'l Abner, portrayed by Ernestine Aderholdt and Rob Kulbeida, are two of the Dogpatch citizens who will join the fun of College Capers. Numbers from "Showboat" and "Flower Drum Song" also will be featured and Miss Junior College of Broward County and the student of the year will be introduced. Proceeds from the show will finance student activities following the spring prom.
