Graduation for students at Broward Junior College will be held May 1. About 328 graduates will be present at the College Gymnasium on the northwest corner of the campus at 8 p.m.

Dr. Robert Wiegman, Dean of the College of Education at Florida Atlantic University, will be guest speaker at the ceremonies. Rev. Fred L. Martin of the First Methodist Church will give the invocation and benediction.

The chairman of the Junior College Advisory Committee, Robert E. Ferris, will present the new president of the college, Dr. Hugh Adams to the graduates, their guests and the faculty.

Jimmy O. Woodle, music instructor, will direct the college orchestra in prelude and processional music. The "Water Music Suite" by Handel and "Finlandia" by Sibelius have been chosen as prelude selections. "Sine Nomine" by R. Vaughn Williams is the processional.

The college singers will perform the Festival Song of Praise by Holst. Pianist will be Audelia Blankenship and Dr. Thomas Cavandeish, head of the
