

BCC Slates Black-Culture Week

COCONUT CREEK — Broward Community College's north campus will offer a Bicentennial salute to black culture next week with talks by black community leaders, a pageant and a historical fashion show highlighting the events.

Sponsored by the Students for Black Awareness, the week-long program will begin with a pageant selecting a Ms. SBA and dance Sunday at the Most Club, 2840 W. Hammondville Road, Pompano Beach.

Monday, black community and governmental leaders will talk to various classes throughout the day. Speakers include School Board Member Kathleen Wright; Fort Lauderdale City Commissioner Andrew DeGraffenreidt; King Davis, director of the Division of Youth Services; Cephone Williams, director of child development for the Boca Raton Mental Health Center; and Hayward Benson, equal opportunity officer for the school system.

Next Wednesday, black students will present a fashion show and dance during the noon activities hour on the quadrangle. Featured will be costumes worn by blacks during various eras of American history.

A young people's gospel concert will be presented at 7 p.m. Feb. 12 at the Bethel A.M.E. Church, Pompano. Performers include the Greater Bethel A.M.E. gospel singers from Boca Raton.

Feb. 13 will be soul food day on campus.

Count Basie Plays Concert Tonight

Broward Community College will present Count Basie and his orchestra in concert tonight at 8:15 in the gymnasium on central campus.

Admission is $2 and tickets may be purchased at the door.

Count Basie has worked with Frank Sinatra, Tony Bennett, Ella Fitzgerald and others.

Store Hours Monday

*Fi Land News
Feb 15 p 5B*